

HOMECOMING

IN FREEMAN OCT. 6-10
Photos by Jeremy Waltner

Above: Homecoming Queen Vaida Ammann stands at attention during the playing of the national anthem prior to presenting the game ball at the start of the football game.

Right: Luke Peters leads the Phoenix through the tunnel — and the handmade sign — formed by Freeman Elementary students Friday, Oct. 10.

Freeman/Marion/Freeman Academy Phoenix cheerleaders Samuella Balongi, Tedel Lonumba, Samantha Balongi and Saerta Kola — dorm students at Freeman Academy — ride on the school's float through the homecoming parade down Main Street.

Left: Mike McCue, a blackbelt and the instructor at Freeman's Universal Kempo Karate School, karate chops through a stack of bricks during a brief exhibition during Freeman's homecoming parade on Friday, Oct. 10. The large parade saw hundreds line Main Street.

Above: Penny Schultz (center) and the rest of the Freeman Junior-Senior High School pep band plays prior to the start of the homecoming football game against Irene-Wakonda — a game that saw the Class 9AA No. 1 Phoenix crush the Eagles 54-0.

